The procedures for removal of a student are addressed in the Residential Terms and Agreement, which is available from the College Admission Department. Any change of student resident status requires the prior permission of the Master following a request giving at least four weeks' notice. This notice or request can be sent via email to master@queens.unimelb.edu.au.

The Application Fee is $75 per student (non-refundable). This fee is to offset the administrative costs associated with enrolments. Following an offer of a place at the College, a NON-REFUNDABLE Admission Deposit is payable to secure this enrolment. The Admission Deposit is $1,000, which will be credited towards your Account.

Queen's College accepts no responsibility for damage or loss of personal property (including students' personal effects, computers, bikes, and motor vehicles on site).
